Session title: With all our hearts

[In Hebrew culture, hearts=wills]:

The podcast reinforces the Kingdom of God cannot come unless as a Kingdom of priests we call upon Him as Lord and obey His instructions. Jesus reinforced this when He said the Kingdom has come upon you when He cast out demons by the finger of God. [Luke 11:20]. Everyone who calls upon Me as Lord and does the will of My Father the Kingdom has come.

Matthew 7:21: Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only the one who does the will of My Father who is in Heaven'.

God revealed what was in the hearts of His people at Meribah. Under stress, their lack of trust and failure to listen to God and act upon His words, instead complaining, grumbling and blaming others, was a serious issue, and consequently they missed the greater blessing God had in store for them.

Talk it through together

- How does this teaching impact us, and do we trust God to give us what we need when He knows we need it?
- How can we ensure we stay trusting and encouraging of others, rather than getting into grumbling?
